Through our "Street Art x Pit Cover Design Contest" held earlier this year, we received lots of wonderfully designed submissions. Together with the participation of several well-known multi-media designers and artists, these unique designs have been turned into artistic pit covers which have been installed in 150 locations across Hong Kong. We now invite you to join our Go Snap! Pit Cover Photo Contest - take funny pictures of these artistic pit covers and you will have the chance to win the grand prize, consisting of a journey to Tokyo to experience Japan's artistic pit cover culture, or other fabulous prizes!

There are 21 artistic pit covers featuring unique designs from the winners of our "Street Art x Pit Cover Design Contest" as well as 11 renowned artists, designers and celebrities. They range from Kan Tai Keung, Freeman Lau, Stanley Wong (Anothermountainman), Alice Mak (Mcdull), Siu Hak (Panda-a-Panda), Carrie Chau, Prudence (Chocolate Rain), Graphic Airlines and MaggieMarket to 903 DJ Maria and pit cover artist extraordinaire Remo Camerota.
