

8 HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR

Financial Secretary, Henry Tang congratulating Towngas Chairman Lee Shau Kee at opening of flagship Four Seasons Hotel

Managing Director, Alfred Chan (right) receiving Occupational Health and Safety Assessment Series (OHSAS) 18001 certificate, an internationally-recognised specification adopted by Towngas for all gas operations

Executive Director and Chief Operating Officer, James Kwan (left) receiving Consumer Product Design Award for Super Flame gas burner at 2005 Hong Kong Awards for Industries

The high-pressure natural gas pipeline system project in Hangzhou, a joint venture between Hangzhou Gas Group, Shell Group and Towngas

Brochures for Towngas' own made-for-the-mainland appliance brand, Bauhinia, launched in September

Towngas Technology Centre, Guangzhou, opened in June to provide state-of-the-art product testing service

Towngas Boy, Towngas' newest safety ambassador, making his inaugural appearance in October with James Kwan at his side

Sharing delight with Senior Citizen Home Safety Association colleagues on receiving Outstanding Partnership Award from Hong Kong Council of Social Service for creating an alliance to check emergency links for the elderly during routine gas inspections

Ceremony celebrating establishment of Wujiang Hong Kong and China Water Company Limited, Towngas' first water supply joint venture

Signing ceremony establishing our largest gas project to date in Xian, famous as gateway to Silk Road in northwestern China