

For immediate release

Towngas 《Life on Life – Giving Love at Mid-Autumn》

Super Girls x Anjaylia x Evelyn Choi as Ambassadors Made “Self-portrait Mooncake” with audience Bring love and care to family and to everyone

Hong Kong, 13 September, 2015 - The Hong Kong and China Gas Company Limited (Towngas) held the “Life on Life – Giving Love at Mid-Autumn” at Upper Ground, Citywalk 2 today to pass on the message of the importance of love and caring among the society. Popular group Super Girls, model Anjaylia Chan and Evelyn Choi were invited to be the ambassadors of the event and made “Self-portrait Mooncake” with the children and parents from the Social Service Units of Evangelical Lutheran Church of Hong Kong (ELCHK), Kwai Tsing District.

During the event, a dance group from Youth Outreach was invited to perform street dance. Street dance is a group activity not only requires collaboration and courage but also the mutual support between the teammates. After the opening performance, Executive Director and Chief Operating Officer of Towngas Peter Wong, Executive Director of ELCHK Tik Chi Yuen, Super Girls, Anjaylia and Evelyn were invited to the stage to officiate the kick-off ceremony of the event. Guests pasted small animal drawings onto the backdrop and filled up the empty spaces of the animal families, symbolising the reunion of families during the Mid-Autumn Festival.

Executive Director and Chief Operating Officer of Towngas Peter Wong said, “Towngas has always been dedicated to serving the society and paying close attention to the social vulnerable groups. Since 2001, we initiated the annual charity event, “Mooncakes for the Community”. We are entering our 15th Anniversary this year and we embrace the same value for the whole time, that is to enhance love and harmony between family members. This year we are going to give away 100,000 pieces of mooncakes across Hong Kong. Since 2001, we have already given away 1.72 million pieces of mooncakes.”

Executive Director of ELCHK Tik Chi Yuen showed his support to the “Mooncakes for the Community” event and pointed out that the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Hong Kong shares the same value and is dedicated to taking care of the needy groups of the society, with people as the essentials.

During the mooncake-making competition, officiating guests were divided into two teams. Each team was required to make as much mooncakes as they could under the guidance from Towngas Cooking Centre instructor. Each team exhibited the importance of collaboration and communication and successfully created numerous mooncakes.

The ambassadors were grateful for being invited by Towngas to such a meaningful event and were pleased that they could make their own “Self-portrait” green tea mooncakes with their childhood photographs on it. They would like to express their thankfulness and looked forward to sharing the mooncakes with their beloved ones and friends. Anjaylia thanked her friends for encouraging her to move forward with positive thinking and being supportive for the whole time. Evelyn and Super Girls would like to thank for their family’s support, nourishment and cultivation.

Entering the 15th anniversary, Towngas still embraces the value of the annual charity event and keeps spreading love and care to the community during Mid-Autumn Festival. This year, Towngas will give away 100,000 pieces of mooncakes to needy families and elderly living alone. To date, Towngas has already been given away a total of 1.72 million pieces of mooncakes since the inception of the Mooncake for The Community Campaign in 2001.

For media enquiries, please contact:

Corporate Communications Department

The Hong Kong and China Gas Company Limited

Tel: 2963 3486

Fax: 2516 7368

Email: ccd@towngas.com

Photos:

Photo 1: Executive Director and Chief Operating Officer of Towngas Peter Wong was giving the opening address at the “Life on Life – Giving Love at Mid-Autumn”

Photo 2: Executive Director of ELCHK Tik Chi Yuen was giving the opening address at the “Life on Life – Giving Love at Mid-Autumn”

Photo 3: Executive Director and Chief Operating Officer of Towngas Peter Wong, Executive Director of ELCHK Tik Chi Yuen, Towngas ambassadors Super Girls、Anjaylia Chan and Evelyn Choi were officiating the kick-off ceremony

Photo 4: Super Girls, Anjaylia Chan and Evelyn Choi expressed their thankfulness to their families and friends at the Mid-Autumn Festival

Photo 5: Super Girls were performing their latest song <一拍即愛>.

Photo 6: Executive Director and Chief Operating Officer of Towngas Peter Wong, Executive Director of ELCHK Tik Chi Yuen, Towngas ambassadors Super Girls、Anjaylia Chan and Evelyn Choi and children from the Social Service Units of Evangelical Lutheran Church of Hong Kong sharing joy at green tea mooncakes-making game.

Photo 7: Group photo of Executive Director and Chief Operating Officer of Towngas Peter Wong, Executive Director of ELCHK Tik Chi Yuen, Towngas ambassadors Super Girls Anjaylia Chan and Evelyn Choi, with children and parents from the Social Service Units of Evangelical Lutheran Church of Hong Kong

Photo 8: School of Hip Hop team "Eternal Flame" from Youth Outreach was performing Hip Hop street dance