

Rules & Regulations

1. The entry submitted must be an original work, which has never been involved with, nor received any award in, any other contest.
2. Plagiarism is strictly prohibited. Contestants shall bear full legal and related responsibilities arising from any possible breach of intellectual property rights in respect of their entries, and shall indemnify the Organiser (Towngas) and other concerned parties against any claims and liabilities arising from any such breach.
3. Participants must demonstrate responsibility for the design content. Designs must not be obscene, include abusive language, contain battered, bloody, violent or animal abuse elements, or feature discrimination or any other improper components. Any such entries will be disqualified.
4. Submissions will not be returned.
5. Towngas shall not be liable for any omission, error, defect or damage of any submission, caused by a computer, network, electronic device or any other technical reason.
6. Towngas reserves the right to disqualify any submission, particularly in cases where the information is found to be duplicated or if there are any aspects of a suspicious nature.
7. Towngas has the right to display or use the designs from the contest in public exhibitions, websites, publications, brochures or any other electronic or publication medium; without the need to obtain consent from participants and without the payment of any/other fees.
8. Towngas owns the intellectual rights of all entries, and reserves the right to edit and modify the entries.
9. Once contestants have entered the contest by submitting an entry, it is assumed that the participants have accepted the rules and regulations of the contest and that the participants further recognise and agree that the rules and regulations are subject to change without any prior announcement by Towngas.
10. Towngas reserves the right to interpret and make changes to the Rules and Regulations of this contest. Our decision on the activities and its arrangements, including the results, prizes and any other related matters are final and we are not obliged to give justification. Entrants may not dispute the judges' decision.
11. In the event of dispute, Towngas reserves the right to make final judgment on the dispute and otherwise in respect of this contest.
12. The Chinese version of the terms and conditions shall prevail whenever there is any discrepancy between the English version and the Chinese version.
