

“Towngas Buddy Club” formed to extend Wenxin Culture to Retirees

(27 March 2013) “The Towngas Buddy Club” has been formed recently to provide opportunities for our retirees to get together and have fun with former colleagues. Towngas arranges regular gatherings and visits for retirees, and mobilises them to take part in our voluntary services so that they can have a fruitful life after retirement.

Recently the Company has organised a day trip to Ping Shan Heritage Trail and Lau Fau Shan for the buddies to enjoy a wonderful holiday with their friends and relatives. During the trip, they visited Hang Heung Cake Shop in Yuen Long for the handmade Chinese style cakes and tasted the freshly baked sweetheart cake, and then they went to Lau Fau Shan to have seafood for lunch. It was a relaxing time for the buddies to talk about their life after retirement and shared with the others their happiness. In the afternoon, the buddies had the chance to know more about Chinese traditional architecture and walled-village at Ping Shan Heritage Trail. They listened to the guide attentively and had a better understanding of the traditional life in the New Territories.

Mr Lee, a retired Towngas employee, felt that Towngas’ activities for the retirees was heartwarming. He said, “This activity is not only a combination of culture, tasty food and recreation, but also an opportunity for the retirees to have fun with their families and former colleagues so that we can enhance communication and make our lives more colourful.”

In the future, Towngas will keep on arranging various kinds of activities for retired colleagues, such as health talks, cultural and gourmet trip etc, extending the Company’s Wenxin culture to the retired employees.

“The Towngas Buddy Club” has been formed recently to provide opportunities for our retirees to get together and have fun with former colleagues. More than 50 retirees joined the Club and participated in different activities.

The buddies and their families took part in a day trip to Ping Shan Heritage Trail and Lau Fau Shan.
