

Towngas was honoured with “Listed Enterprises of the Year 2016” and “Best Corporate Social Responsibility Award”

(21 November 2016) The Hong Kong and China Gas Company Limited (Towngas) was presented with “Listed Enterprises of the Year 2016” and “Best Corporate Social Responsibility Award” at the “Listed Enterprises of the Year 2016” Award Presentation Ceremony held by Bloomberg Businessweek /Chinese Edition on 17 November. Towngas, which is the only public utility company that received the above awards, has won recognition from the industry for our remarkable performance in different business areas.

As an influential financial magazine in the region, Bloomberg Businessweek /Chinese Edition launched the “Listed Enterprises of the Year 2016” Awards this year to provide a platform for listed enterprises and business leaders to exchange views on Hong Kong’s economic development and business strategies of listed enterprises, and to deepen the public’s understanding of the outstanding listed enterprises so as to help the investors explore high-quality listed enterprises. The winners, selected by a judging panel formed by celebrities and experts in the financial sector, have excellence performance in all business areas.

Towngas realises that nowadays investors’ expectations of listed enterprises tend to be diversified, ranging from the areas of return on investment, profitability, prospect of the industry, as well as corporate governance and social responsibility. In the future, Towngas will keep on maintaining good corporate governance to cater for the needs of stakeholders so that they will have confidence for the Company and we can fulfill our social responsibility.
